

Having troubles viewing this email? Please click here to view online.

ROCK THE BOAT

2019 National Elder Abuse Conference

CREATE A DOMINO EFFECT.

Trade Exhibition Spaces EOI's now open!

Limited Exhibition spaces available at the National Elder Abuse Conference / 500 delegates / 2 days - EOI now open!

Hosted by ADA Australia and Caxton Legal Centre on 22 and 23 July at the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre, the 6th

National Elder Abuse Conference (NEAC 2019) will be an opportunity to drive real change!

More than 500 delegates from a range of sectors including private, government, community sector, legal and banking will join a world-class line up of expert speakers for this two-day event to stop elder abuse.

There are a limited number of exhibition spaces available. This is a chance for like-minded industry related organisations to showcase their services and build relationships with speakers and delegates from across Australia.

Expressions of interest for these opportunities are now being accepted. We encourage you to apply early to avoid disappointment.

Click here to find out more about this exciting opportunity!

The dynamic program includes international, national and local experts of the highest calibre and will be led by ABC television journalist Virginia Trioli.

NEAC 2019 is pleased to support the Australian Guardianship and Administration Council National Conference taking place this week!

The Australian Guardianship and Administration Council National Conference 2019 (AGAC 2019) will be held 14-15 March at the Hyatt Hotel Canberra. The theme of the Conference is 'Upholding rights, preventing abuse and promoting autonomy' and we expect to welcome more than 250 people, including those with disability, practitioners in the health, guardianship, elder abuse and social services sectors, policy-makers, lawyers, and academics, among others. The Conference program explores topics of Guardianship, Human Rights, NDIS, Supported Decision Making as well as including 7 sessions devoted solely to the topic of Elder Abuse. We welcome you to join us at this important event, alongside national and international speakers, to showcase new thinking and development in all these fields. For more information, visit our website agac2019.org.au.

Have you followed us on Facebook?

Stay up-to-date with the latest on NEAC 2019 via our website and Facebook event page. Click 'Attending' or 'Interested' on the Facebook event page to be notified whenever we post something new. You can also ask questions, click through to our registration page and invite others via the event page.

REGISTER NOW

Conference Partners:

NEAC 2019

neac2019.com.au

info@neac2019.com.au

1300 878 815

This email was sent by NEAC 2019, 1300 878 815 to CD_AUSSIE@hotmail.com

Unsubscribe

