Emergency Room Footage on CBS Matches Footage from Italian Hospital!

This is footage from SKY News on March 22 from Italy.

And here is footage from CBS News during their New York City report on March 25.

CBS News painted a dire picture from New York City this week in their coronavirus coverage.

On Wednesday morning CBS aired this footage from a New York hospital.

The footage matches SKY News video from inside an Italian hospital from Sunday March 22.

UPDATE: ALX posted the video comparison from the two news outlets.

UK Guardian's Richard Wolffe Certainly, Wolffe is not alone in applauding the spread of coronavirus in the U.S. Julia Ioffe, currently with GQ, shared her "America first" joy with the world. This is the same Julia Ioffe who in 2016 was fired from Politico for publishing a sexually obscene tweet about Ivanka Trump. Like many of her ultra-liberal camp, Ioffe has no boundaries in her noxious accusations. In 2018 she claimed that Trump "radicalized" more people than ISIS. Later she was forced to back-pedal on that statement.

What else does anyone expect? You do know who now has control over programming and editing of our news sources don't you? That same bunch of good little commies that Harvard, Yale, Columbia, et al, has turned out every year. They have no sense plagiarism or unbiased reporting. They know only that they must be the best Comrades they can be, regardless of how they get it done.

The whole thing is a hoax.

Out of the dozens of celebrities and politicians that have come out and said they tested positive, has any of them died? Has a single one of them even been admitted to a hospital???

Has there been any verification of all these dead people or just media hyped stories of it? By now we should have known someone personally that was afflicted. I don't.

Has there ever been anything more effective at wiping out the middle class....the antithesis to socialism/marxism... and they have desensitized us to a police state.

Apparently, the climate change agenda was not working well enough or fast enough to control people's lives, so they created a new global theat, COVID? The invisible monster.

On average, 100 people die every day from car accidents and

Corona virus itself is real. I have a relative who just got over it. In NY. He's in his 60s and had it for a couple of weeks. Like a moderate flu. He's fine now and his WIFE DID NOT CATCH IT. What is a hoax is the GOVERNMENT/MEDIA REACTION & POLICIES.

I have a cousin that is 63, she and her husband visited Chicago before all this got started, she tested positive a couple of weeks ago. She had mild symptoms and they are both now almost over it. Her mother lives with them and she is in her 80's and she is fine, never got it. As of yet anyway.

You are right. When this is objectively examined, it is obviously a giant hoax...false flag. Why they are doing this....I don't know. I suspect it's to cover up the collapse of the economic system. But it IS a hoax.

Sorry, no offense meant nor a conspiracy theory. Let me clarify.

Thousands die from the flu and other transmittable diseases every year. Yes, COVID-19 appears to be serious like H1N1. But do I believe it is worse and deserving of shutting down the world economy and sealing borders? Absolutely not. Don't know who or why but somehow this is blown way out of proportion. That it is as bad as the media has portrayed, deserving of us losing our freedoms, is the hoax.
